49ERS MUSEUM PRESENTED BY FOXCONN INDUSTRIAL INTERNET

If you are looking for a unique event space, then the 49ers Museum is the fit for you. Walk amongst 49ers greats in the Hall of Fame or marvel at the 49ers' FIVE Super Bowl trophies. The museum features 15,000 square feet of exhibits on two levels, including the 5,000 square feet in the Game space on the field level, where your guests can play interactive games, be the broadcaster or try on 49ers uniforms. Within the 49ers Museum is the 90-person Morabito Theater, named after the team's original ownership family. The theater features a 40-foot movie screen and 4K projector. The 49ers Museum is perfect for corporate presentations, team meetings and receptions. The museum is also a perfect addition to an in-stadium event.

LEVY

The disruptor in defining the premium sports and entertainment dining experience, Levy is recognized as one of the fastest growing and most critically acclaimed hospitality companies. Named one of the 10 most innovative companies in sports by Fast Company magazine, Levy's diverse portfolio includes award-winning restaurants, iconic sports and entertainment venues, and convention centers as well as the Super Bowl, Grammy Awards, PGA Championship, US Open Tennis Tournament, Kentucky Derby, and NHL, MLB, NBA All-Star Games.

Jon Severson returns to Levy Restaurants as Senior Executive Chef for Levi's® Stadium. Previously he served as Executive Chef at CenturyLink Field for the Seattle Seahawks and Seattle Sounders from 2006-2013 where Esquire Magazine voted CenturyLink Field #1 NFL Stadium for food variety in 2010.

From 2013-2017, Jon was President of The Skillet Group, a Seattle-based brand that began as Skillet Street Food serving American-inspired food out of vintage Airstream trailers. During his tenure, Jon helped Skillet grow by opening two out of the four restaurants and increased its catering company throughout the Pacific Northwest.

Jon began his career with Levy Restaurants over 20 years ago while proudly working with James Beard award winning chef Paul Bartolotta at Spiaggia from 1996-1997. He helped open the Pepsi Center in Denver, Co in 1999 and was promoted to Executive Chef in 2003. During his time at the Pepsi Center, his team hosted the 2001 NHL All Star Game, the Stanley Cup Finals in 2001 as well as the 2005 NBA All Star Game.

Jon attended Saint Louis University as well as continued education classes at the Culinary Institute of America at Greystone. Jon's passion for creating great food as well as his ability to create a strong team of people to pull off large events is what sets Jon apart.
